MONTREAL, QUEBEC (March 13, 2013) – In celebration of World Water Day on March 22, ONE DROP, the non-profit organization established by Cirque du Soleil Founder Guy Laliberté, will present One Night for ONE DROP, sponsored by Lamborghini and MGM Resorts International. This original, full-scale production, specifically created for a one-night-only performance at the “O” Theatre at Bellagio in Las Vegas, will feature more than 230 Cirque du Soleil artists and guest performers.

To share the experience around the world, the event will be filmed with 12 cameras and a 90-minute special will be created. The broadcast will be available for online viewing at ONEDROP.org for seven days only, from March 25 to 31, with a donation of $5 or more to ONE DROP.

One Night for ONE DROP will celebrate the Earth as an artistic creation and highlight water as the essence of life within the Earth’s ecosystem. The show will also feature Victoria’s Secret model Oluchi Orlandi’s unveiling of a specially-designed Roberto Cavalli gown; a dance piece choreographed by Sonya Tayeh from “So You Think You Can Dance” and an original composition by award-winning composer Danny Elfman.

The “O” Theatre will be transformed through state-of-the-art multimedia environments with video projections designed by Moment Factory, who has collaborated with Madonna, Jay-Z, Celine Dion and fun., among others.

Additionally, there will be an online auction offering once-in-a-lifetime experiences, art, memorabilia, VIP event packages and more. Auction items will include a watch from the private collection of Prince Albert II of Monaco, jet-setting trips around the world, original sculptures by Richard MacDonald and Rabarama and the couture gown designed by Roberto Cavalli and worn by Oluchi Orlandi.
