NEW YORK – 13 AUGUST 2018 – One Drop and Phillips are pleased to announce the full list of artworks to be offered at Art for One Drop on 21 September. The charity auction will directly benefit One Drop’s safe water initiatives in Latin America, namely through its Lazos de Agua program, which will help transform the lives of more than 200,000 people in Mexico, Guatemala, Nicaragua, Colombia and Paraguay, through sustainable access to safe water and sanitation. Some of the most influential contemporary artists working today – Sterling Ruby, Carol Bove, Gabriel Orozco, and Nicolas Party to name a few – and their galleries have agreed to donate works of art to the auction.

“The overwhelming response from the artists and the meaningful artworks they have donated to this auction speaks to the direct impact of One Drop’s initiatives, and it’s amazing knowing the funds will go directly towards improving the lives of thousands of people living without access to safe water.” said Philipp Kaiser, renowned art critic and curator of Art for One Drop.

ABOUT ONE DROP

One Drop is an international foundation created in 2007 by Cirque du Soleil's founder Guy Laliberté. At the core of its mission is access to water, sanitation and hygiene as a transformative force to improve the living conditions of some of the world's most vulnerable communities. With the objective of delivering long-term impact and sustainability, One Drop brings into all its projects a unique Social Art for Behavior Change approach that aims at engaging communities in taking ownership and embracing adequate behaviors towards water, sanitation and hygiene. This year, One Drop is celebrating 10 years of bringing sustainable access to safe water to people around the world with projects in 13 countries that will reach over 1.3 million beneficiaries.
